

YPG II

Text: Isaiah 52

6 April 2013

BEHOLD, MY SERVANT

1. The Messiah-Servant

- a) He shall deal prudently Isaiah 52:13
 - i) Wisdom
 - ii) Discernment
- b) He shall be exalted
- c) He shall be extolled
- d) He shall be very high Isaiah 52:13 (Cf. Philippians 2:5-11)

2. The suffering of the Messiah

- a) Many will be astonished Isaiah 52:14a
 - i) The disciples did not fully comprehend Luke 18:31-34
 - ii) Some could not accept the thought of Jesus suffering Matthew 16:21-26
- b) Visage marred more than any man Isaiah 52:14b
- c) His form more than the sons of men Isaiah 52:14c
- d) The physical suffering of Jesus was foretold Cf. Matthew 27:26-31

3. Results of Christ's suffering for the sins of mankind

- a) He will sprinkle many nations Isaiah 52:15a
- b) Kings will be speechless before Him Isaiah 52:15b
 - i) They shall see
 - ii) They shall consider

BIBLE MEMORY

Isaiah 52:13

Behold, My Servant shall deal prudently;

He shall be exalted and extolled and be very high.